*OPENING PRAYER

O God of Resurrection and Redemption, you are the light that can never be put out; and now you give us a light that shall drive away all darkness. You are love without coldness, and you have given us such warmth in our hearts that we can love all when we meet. You are the life that defies death, and you have opened for us a way that leads to eternal life.

None of us is a great Christian; we are all humble and ordinary. But, your grace is enough for us. Stir up in us that small degree of joy and thankfulness of which we are capable, the timid faith which we can muster, and the cautious obedience which we cannot refuse. Then, we shall begin to live in the wholeness of life which you have prepared for all of us through the death and resurrection of your Son.

Do not allow any of us to remain apathetic or indifferent to the wondrous glory of Easter, but let the light of our risen Lord reach every corner of our dull hearts, so that we might reflect it to the world.
